

Master/Postgraduate diploma in contemporary diplomacy with Internet Governance specialisation

Provisional schedule for 2022 (subject to possible changes)

Note: visit our Course Catalogue for full course descriptions.

Introductory Workshop in Malta: Monday, 24 January to Monday, 14 February 2022 (required for all candidates)

Online Learning Session 1: week of 21 February to week of 25 April 2022

- Introduction to Internet Governance

Online Learning Session 2: week of 9 May to week of 11 July 2022

- E-Diplomacy

Online Learning Session 3: week of 25 July to week of 26 September 2022

- Infrastructure and Critical Internet Resources*
- Bilateral Diplomacy
- Multilateral Diplomacy
- Diplomatic Law: Privileges and Immunities

Online Learning Session 4: week of 10 October to week of 12 December 2022

- Cybersecurity*
- Sustainable Development Diplomacy
- Language and Diplomacy
- Economic Diplomacy

Online Learning Session 5: week of 20 February to week of 24 April 2023

- Diplomatic Theory and Practice
- Public Diplomacy
- Artificial Intelligence: Technology, Governance, and Policy Frameworks*

* Participants must choose at least one of the following courses: Infrastructure and Critical Internet Resources (Session 3), Cybersecurity (Session 4), or Artificial Intelligence: Technology, Governance, and Policy Frameworks (Session 5).

