

Center for Education Diplomacy
an initiative of the Association for Childhood Education International

Education Diplomacy:

An Interdisciplinary Approach for Sustainable Change Across Education Systems

Presented by Diane Whitehead
Yvette G. Murphy

Association for Childhood Education
International™

Education Diplomacy

- Introductions and Background
- Why Education Diplomacy?
- Why Now?
- What is Education Diplomacy?
- Global Trends and Local Impact in Education

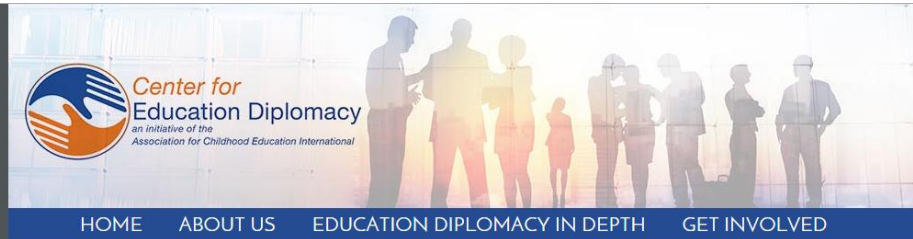

Association for
Childhood Education
International™

Association for Childhood Education International

- About ACEI
- Childhood and Lifelong Learning
- Background to Education Diplomacy
- Sector specific diplomacy initiatives
 - Global Health Diplomacy
 - Humanitarian Diplomacy
 - Climate Change Diplomacy
- Center for Education Diplomacy

Center Launched in 2014: www.educationdiplomacy.org

A future in which every person is able to achieve their full potential depends upon the advancement of education as a bridge to promote peace, prosperity, and sustainable solutions to complex human problems.

Join the Center for Education Diplomacy in the movement to advance the landscape of education worldwide

Why Now?

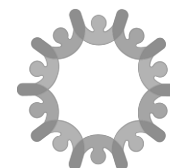

Vision

Creating Change - Beyond Advocacy

Education Diplomacy is a long-term approach to advocacy that requires building relationships and often multi-level, multi-sector engagement to create change.

Association for
Childhood Education
International™

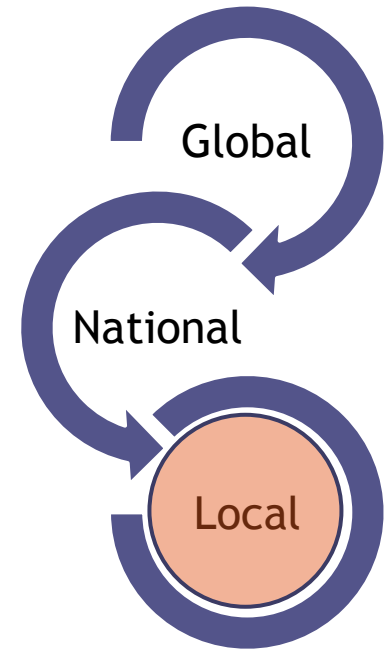

Why Education Diplomacy?

- Access to and Quality of Education
- Equity
- Sustainability – A Vision

Well-being, fulfilling work, education, meaningful social-emotional connections

(source: Creative Change)

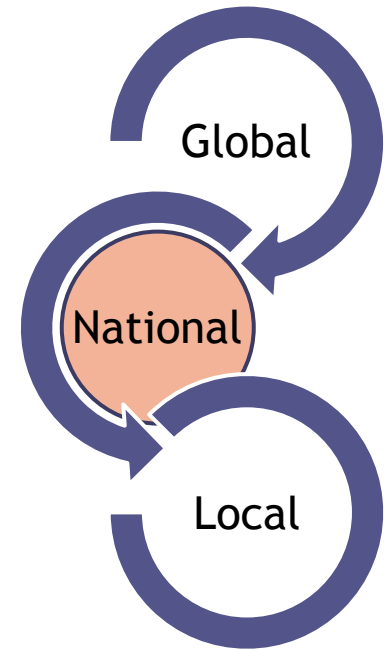

Association for
Childhood Education
International™

Opportunities for Advancing Education at the National Level

- Policy Development and Revision
- Standards Development
- Quality Assurance
- Teacher Preparation and Support
- National Funding for Education Programs
- Partnerships Across Sectors

Why Now?

- Global Development

Millennium Development Goals

Post-2015 Sustainable Development Goals

- International Education Initiatives and Campaigns

Education for All, MDG2

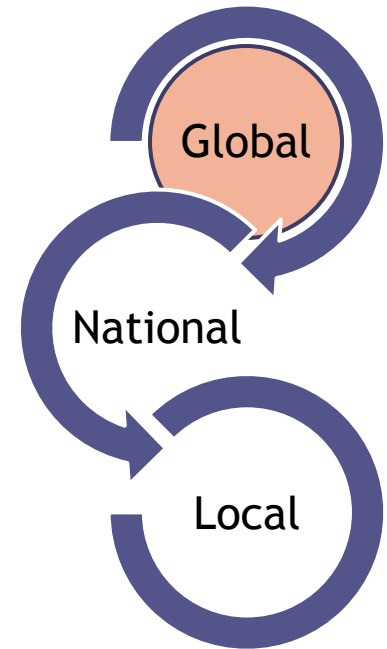

Global Education First Initiative

Learning

- International Funding Mechanisms

- Diversification of Education Actors

- Global Trends

*Association for
Childhood Education
International™*

Global Trends Impacting Education

Direct

- Internationalization
- Privatization of Education
- Teacher shortage
- Globalization of Knowledge
- “Data Revolution”

Indirect

- Migration
- Climate Change
- Global Health Changes
- Population Growth
- Youth Bulge
- Aging Populations
- Conflict and Fragile Political Contexts

What is Education Diplomacy?

Knowledge Areas

Human Rights
International Development
International Education Policy
International Relations

Skills

Negotiation
Mediation
Systems-thinking
Appreciative Inquiry

Dispositions

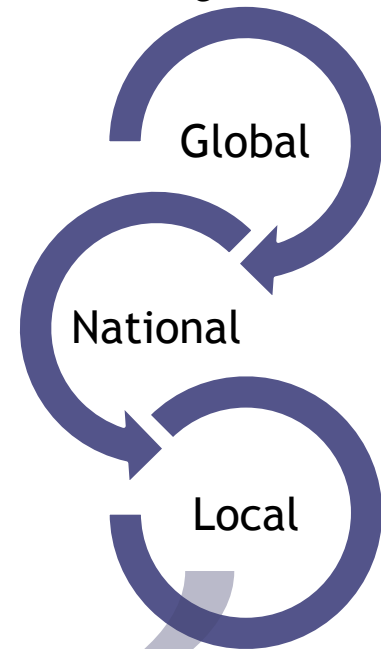

Global Ethical Values
Reflective Insight
Intellectual Flexibility
Cross-Cultural Outlook

Education Diplomats

Global to Local Interplay

Priorities, Policies, Practices, Funding, Trends

Access, Equity, and Quality
Sustainability

Center for Education Diplomacy
an initiative of the Association for Childhood Education International

Engagement

Education Diplomacy Day

7 October 2014, Geneva, Switzerland

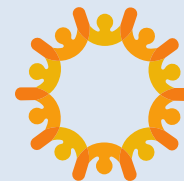

Institute for Global Education Diplomacy

5-8 March 2015, Washington, DC, USA

Online Education Diplomacy Course

Launching Summer 2015

Education Diplomacy Call for Manuscripts

*Association for
Childhood Education
International™*

Stay Updated!

Center for Education Diplomacy

www.educationdiplomacy.org

Association for Childhood Education International

www.acei.org

Social Media

@edudiplomacy | facebook.com/educationdiplomacy

Linkedin Group: Center for Education Diplomacy

Diane Whitehead, Executive Director

dwhitehead@acei.org

Yvette G. Murphy, Advocacy and Outreach

ymurphy@acei.org

Nana Oppong, Development

noppong@acei.org

Association for
Childhood Education
International™